THE CITIZEN.

An Independent Weekly Devoted to the

THE HOME, FARM, & SCHOOL 50 CENTS A YEAR.

Overcoats

VOL. IV.

A Family Paper

BEREA, MADISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1902.

Fifty cents a year.

IT WILL PAY YOU

TO COME HERE FOR

You'll find a great stock to choose from-plain, honest coats as low as five dollars, or rich, elegant garments as fine as twenty-five; and a

$7, $8, $10, $12.50 and Up

And don't forget that we are headquarters for everything else worn

Covington and Banks Richmond, Kentucky.

OUTFITTERS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

wealth of great bargains at

by man or boy.

NO 20

IDEAS.

Patience is power.

To avoid great mistakes we must light, standing as follows: profit by small ones.

Learning is a good aid to thought but a poor substitute for it. Men think little of what is said unless they think much of him who says

If we guard against all the possibilities of ill, we cannot use all the probabilities of good.

The less a man says of himself the less be exposes himself. Few people can bear to be turned inside out.

TAKE NOTICE.

Exhibition by the Model Schools. in by a rather narrow margin. Tabernacle, Tuesday night, Nov. 10. The usual hol'day or Christmas Concert comes this year on Christmas THE CITIZEN office with specimens of evening, Dec. 24. Remember the date, and plan to be there.

Wednesday, Nov. 5. It costs but very as follows: College department at little to get the benefit of this month's Prof. Dodge's; Academy and Farmers schooling, and so be started far ahead course at Science Hall; Normal at for the winter.

Winter Term opens Wednesday, Dec. 10. Remember that any student Ladies Hall. who does not register at the beginning of the term has to pay an extra registration fee of 25 cents.

Persons who can furnish room or week, ending November 3, 1902, at Berea Station board for students in the Winter Term should talk with Treas. Osborne at once. Get your householder's permit and put your rooms in good condition, and you can both do good and make

FROM THE WIDE WORLD.

News comes that a hill at Palenque, in Mexico, has become an active volcano

The horses of Emperor Frances Josef, of Austria, became unmanageable the other day, and he jumped out and walked home.

The Colombian government now asks for $10,000,000 right of way for the Panama canal, instead of the $7, 000,000 offered it.

The insurrection in the Republic of Colombia, South America, is still on, and a gold dollar will now buy 130 of their paper dollars.

IN OUR OWN COUNTRY.

Gov. Richard Yates, of Illinois, is very sick with typhoid fever.

The arbitrators on the great coal strike began their work at Washington on Thursday last. Twenty-five persons, doctors and others, have been indicted for graverobbing, and held to bail, in some cases as high as $5,000.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, probably the ablest champion of woman suffrage in the world, died in New York, at the age of eighty seven. Andrew Murray, of New York, after distinguished surgeons gave no hopes of his recovery, stood up before a glass, cut out a cancer from his own tougue, bandaged the wound and has recovered.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY.

Snow fell at various place in Kentucky Oct. 28. The Louisville & Atlantic R. R. bas

the track now laid to Beattyville.

The third gusher in Knox county flowed at the rate of 480 barrels of oil

The Kentucky Synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian church is in session at Princeton.

Broadhead station was robbed of $600 last week, and bloodhounds are after the robbers.

Small-pox has developed in Metcalf county, brought from North Dakota by a traveling man.

The weather indications point to our having much of cold rain, sleet and frost in November. Shelter the stock.

Typhoid fever is unusually fatal in Kentucky this year. Read carefully the article upon it on second page, and take all care.

Three attorneys, McQuown, Kohn and Phelps, have sued the Goebel estate for $5,000 each for services in the contest race for governor.

Elisha Hoskins and Chas. Powers were sentenced to life imprisonment for connection with the "Quarter House" fight in Bell county.

Geo. Gaskins, of Fleming county, was sitting on a fence with his gun resting on a lower rail, when it slipped, was discharged, and killed him instantly.

THE ELECTION.

The vote of Berea on Tuesday was Republican

Democrat Prohibitionist

Madison county goes Democratic by a small majority. Hon. G. G. Gilbert seems to be re-elected to Congress from this district Don't Use by about the expected majority. large. The Republicans hold the Spectacles

House of Representatives by a small a large majority, and the Republicans need also re-elected Gov. Odell in New York Mr. Jas. W. Bratcher compliments

turnips weighing 31 lbs each. The fall term department socials of Third month of Fall Term begins the College were held Tuesday night, > Gilbert Cottage; Industrial courses at Main Street, Richmond, Ky. Nichels House; Model Schools at

Voluntary Observers' Meteorological Record for November 1. Maximum 76°

WEATHER BUREAU.

October 29. Minimum 30° Rainfall .15 on October 28. Frost October 29. Sleet storm October 28. F. D. CARR.

Unless you need them; and if Ohio and Indiana go Republican by you use them be sure they fit your

> I will give thorough examination FREE OF CHARGE always indicating the correct glasses to use. It you don't | Corner of Main and Collins Streets. need glasses I will tell you so.

T. A. Robinson.

Optician and Jeweler

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE. DR. M. E. JONES, Dentist &

Office .- Rear Mrs. Fish's Millinery when in town.

Office Days .- Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of each week.

Urns, Headstones, Statuary Granite, and Marble

Work of all kinds done in a workmanlike manner at reasonable prices and with dispatch. All work guaranteed by

GOLDEN & FLORA;

RICHMOND, Ky.

NOTICE!

I would like to make the aquaintance of everyone within reach of Berea

MAKE CHAIRS.

Tan and Dress Leather, or do Splint or Bark Bottoming.

Please send me your address or call

CHAS. A. KING,

Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave ation" were the startling words heard her a few doses of Chamberlain's by Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Cough Remedy, and in a short time all Wis., from her doctor after he had

"Last winter an infant child of mine;

had croup in a violent form," says El-

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save der John W. Rogers, a Christian your life and that is through an oper-Cough Remedy, and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by S. E. Welch, Jr.

Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed, and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to usa Electric Bitters, which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For sale by all drugstores.

General Upholstery.

If your mattress needs remaking, or your couch recovering, or your

FURNITURE RENOVATING AND REPAIRING,

I shall be glad to call and give an honest estimate of what it will cost you. Work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

+-+-+

Address Walter Turner,

Box 228, Berea, Ky., or care of Supt. C. A. King.

Madison County Roller Mills

Manufacturers Fancy Roller Flour . Corn Meal Ship Stuffs Crushed Corn, Etc. Our "GOLD DUST" Roller Floor will be hard to beat

"PRIDE OF MADISON" is another Excellent Flour Helelelelelelelele

Potts & Duerson,

Whites Station, Ky.

If It's From Joplin's

We wish to call attention to the large assortment of New Furniture now on sale at our store.

It's Good

We invite our Berea friends to make themselves at home at JOPLIN'S-meet your friends here and consider this your headquarters when in Richmond.

We guarantee quality of everything we sell and invite comparison of prices.

PICTURE DEPARTMENT -- Mouldings in fashion's latest dictates always carried, and framing neatly done.

CARPETS AND MATTINGS

in great variety.

UNDERTAKING A SPECIALTY.

Day Phone, 73. Night Phone, 47, 66. JO. S. JOPLIN, Richmond, Ky.

NEARLY $10,000

ELDER'S BARGAIN STORE

WORTH OF

TO BE SACRIFICED

200 Pairs of Men's Pants, 75c to $3.25 300 Boy's Suits, 75c to $6.

100 Boy's Knee Pants, ten to fifty cents 500 Men's and Boys' Overcoats, all prices 1,000 Men's and Boy's Suits, all prices

See our Stock of

If we have what you want prices will suit you

QUILTS, BLANKETS, ETC.

Don't fail to visit our

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

And See All the NEW and NOBBY STYLES

Respectfully Submitted to the Cash Trade.

E. V Elder

MODERATE DRINKERS

THEY ARE RECRUITING SERGEANTS FOR ARMY OF DRUNKARDS.

The Fallacy of Their Arguments Exposed-Some Facts to Be Considered by Those Who Boast of Their "Capacity" For Liquor.

The New York American is continuing its regular publication of striking editorials on the drink question. In a recent issue it says:

These editorials on whisky drinking are not written especially for the man who by actual experience knows the results of excessive drinking. They are written in the hope that they may promote serious thinking among men whose habits are not yet formed, that they may awaken a keen sense of responsibility among those who have young men in their charge.

Today let us briefly discuss the case of the so called "moderate" whisky drinker. Of "moderate" drinkers at Mo. least half are struggling against the temptation to drink excessively. Of the moderate whisky drinkers, of those who pride themselves on their self restraint, a great majority do drink to excess occasionally, and every time they make this mistake their moderation diminishes and their self control

There is no sadder drinker than the miscalled "moderate" whisky drinker. He takes a drink, then takes another, then uses up his best energies and strength of will in the attempt to keep from taking a third. He was, technicafly, a "moderate" drinker last year, and considers himself a moderate drinker this year. But what he takes today he would have looked upon with horror a year or two years ago.

The "moderate" drinker, gradually drifting toward excess, suffers more keenly even than the confirmed drunkard. The drunkard takes his heavy dose of alcoholic poison. He wipes out utterly his self respect, his strength of will, every desire to be a decent man. While the alcohol dasts his moral sufferings are over. He suffers physically the next day, then drinks again, and so on until the end. The "moderate" drinker struggles constantly with himself. If he is an intelligent man, he constantly mistrusts himself and fears his growing inclination. If he has the power of self examination, he knows how much his success is hurt by his drinking; he knows how much harm it does to those who blindly rely on his statements of his moderation. He knows what a lie the talk of moderation is.

The drinker who foolishly talks, at home and abroad, of his "moderate" drinking and its harmless character is among the most harmful of men. During his brief period of life he makes whisky respectable. He is the recruiting sergeant who adds to the army of Another dangerous and at the same time preposterous creature is the besotted fool who boasts of the amount that he can drink. In every barroom, in every club, you meet a poor, befuddied, weakened creature bragging about his "capacity." This same man of what he can drink and filling the dence, R. I. minds of young men with a hideous ambition to be brutes, give the hard drinker a few facts.

It is actually a fact that the drunkard who boasts of the quantity of alcohol that he can put into his system is often admired by other men. He never is compared, as he should be compared, to a hog with tuberculosis.

Tell him that the capacity to drink a great deal simply means a weakened, degenerate heart. It does not man in normal health, with a strong heart and a good supply of blood. His system is at par. If you add a little alcohol, you overdrive his heart and flood the brain tissue with alcoholic blood, causing drunkenness. This drunkenness, easily caused, proves physical superiority, not inferiority.

An athlete in perfect condition is made drunk by an extremely small amount of alcohol. The wretched outcast drunkard on the street would take five times as much to stop the shaking of his hands and get himself in condition-to beg. That does not mean that the athlete is inferior to the gutter drunkard.

The child fifteen or sixteen years old in the last stages of consumption is sometimes kept alive by the use of alcohol. Such a child can absorb without intoxication three times as much as the strongest man.

These facts may convince the man who boasts of his capacity that his boast is simply a confession of weak- anything. Every claim, whether made ness, of physical decay.

Nicotine an Enemy of Brains. Dr. Herbert Fisk of the Northwestern university believes he has gathered statistics which prove that the use of tobacco is incompatible with the use of theents scholarship is in inverse rato smoke and adds: "The students et low marks of course say it is no to tobacco. A somewhat careobservation of facts has convinced that it is tobacco. Last year not one of the boys who used tobacco stood in the first rank of scholarship. This has been the usual rule."

Cure Consumption Without Alcohol. Unusual interest has attached to the open air treatment of consumptives at the state sanitarium, Rutland, Mass. Neither alcohol in any form nor cod liver oil has been used. The percent- takable sign of the times is that we age of cures is gratifying. Last year 399 patients were admitted, and there was but one death. In about half of the cases the disease was either apparently cured or arrested.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Christianity is the religion of justice as well as mercy.-Rev. Dr. Cortland Myers, Baptist, Brooklyn.

The Test of Wealth. If a man can say, "I am a man, and nothing that is human is beyond my care," then I say he is rich.-Rev. Dr Savage, Unitarian, New York.

A Face to Be Loved. The sweetest thought to me of all is that Christ's is a face that wants to be loved.-Rev. Dr. Frank De Witt Talmage, Presbyterian, Chicago.

Deference to Others. We help ourselves and help each other in living and working in deference to the rights of others.-Rev. C A. Langston, Unitarian, Atlanta, Ga.

Man Walks by Faith. From the first step of the child to the last step into the cold waters of what we call death man walks by faith .--Rev. Dr. Lowry, Baptist, Kansas City,

The One Basis. There is but one basis of a happy life-the practice of virtue and the love of truth.-Rev. Dr. Elwood Worcester to Students of Pennsylvania Univer-

The Condition of Entrance. Character is the condition of entrance into the presence of God. A character of holiness-Christ in you-is the hope of glory in an endless eternity.-Rev. J L. Caughey, Presbyterian, Rochester, Warning the Young. There is no office of a faithful preacher or of the schoolteacher or of the college professor or of the newspaper more important than to swing the red light of danger in the eyes of the boys and girls.-Rev. J. C. Hall, Congregationalist, Denver. Purpose In Everything. God has a purpose in everything. But the mysteries of God have been hid from the ages, a purpose too profound for the finite mind, too farreaching for human comprehension, unaided by the divine spirit .- Rev. M. P. Fikes, Baptist, Baltimore.

Crowned With a Halo. God takes the life we have to live here, with all its varying conditions, and crowns it with a halo, makes living a joy in that it is a foretaste, a faint gleaming, of the life that is to come.-Rev. Dr. J. W. Walden, Presbyterian, Athens, Ga.

Under Scrutiny From Above. Every man is a creator, and on him rests the responsibility of making his work what it should be, working for the satisfaction of his own conscience, always remembering that he is under scrutiny from above.-Rev. Dr. Alsop, Episcopalian, Brooklyn.

Moral Responsibility. Every man has a conscience and a sense of some sort of moral responsi bility. He will either worship the true God or some false god. All character is either positive or negative. God blesses the world by true characters.-

Bishop Joyce, Methodist, Chicago. Getting Away From Vice. The tendency of human life is to move out of contact with vice, to get sneers at the respectable human being as far away from it as possible. The tendency of the Christian gospel is to move into contact with vice as fast as possible and to overcome it with good. As people gain a competence they move away from the home in which by frugality and righteousness they have prospered. - President When you next hear a man boasting Faunce of Brown University, Provi-

Will Keep His Promise.

The dear Lord, who watches the sparrow's flight and fall and who has given us some faint glimpses of what is to be, will keep the wonderful promise, "I go to prepare a place for you," mean a strong head. Take a young and we need have no disturbing thoughts, but, on the contrary, perfect confidence. Our chief concern should be how to make the best and the most of this life, for if we are in the right now we surely cannot go wrong hereafter.-Late Rev. Dr. George H. Hepworth, Congregationalist.

True Friendship. As dews to the parched earth, as the sail to the shipwrecked mariner, so is friendship amid the cares and trials of life. If men decry friendship, it is because they have selected those unworthy of trust or because they themselves are inconstant. Falsity in friends is impossible. It only occurs where a masked friendship has been the counterfeit of virtue. So called friends deceive because they never should have been selected as friends. -Rev. Dr. Levy, Hebrew, Pittsburg.

The Age Demands Facts. This is an age of facts. Men are demanding the facts before they accept for a new machine, a new industrial enterprise or a new theory, must meet this test. Christianity must meet it also. "You claim your religion transforms the character of the person embracing it? Very well, let us see if it does." And it is a duty we owe such brains. He declares that among his questioners to show them by our keeping of our .ord's commandments that our companionship with him is transforming our lives .- Rev. Milton J. Norton, Congregationalist, San Francisco.

> No Need of a Church Trust. This world does not need a church trust. The church today would not be so powerful, either in numbers or in influence, had it not been for the distinct work of the different divisions. Neither would its men and machinery be so efficient. The world owes a debt to every denomination that has been true to the gospels of Jesus Christ and the New Testament. One unmisare getting farther away from organic church union and closer to the more important thing, unity of effort and unity of spirit in the name of Jesus troubles. Only 25c at all drugstores. Christ.-Rev. C. J. Hall, Denver.

TYPHOID FEVER.

This is not a subject of pressing interest to the people of this vicinity, at the present time, as nearly all who have had the disease are now recoved. Indeed the number of cases here means removes the danger.

might be avoided by constant careful- use several times. ress. But many seem to think that White ribbons turn yellow when high a feeding value as timothy hay. sickness, especially in the forms most cleaned with gasoline, and for these The advantages claimed for the fatal, is a sort of Divine dispensation prepare a suds of luke-warm water shredded fodder over the article in from which there is no escape. This and ivory soap. Wash them as you the natural state are easier to handle, is a terrible, almost a foolish, mistake. would a fine handkerchief, do not the animals will eat it up cleaner, and It is true of typhoid fever, quite as wring, but squeeze them through the the refuse works into manure much certainly as of most of the ills of life, fingers. Rinse and let them partially quicker than the whole stalks. This that it comes because we choose it, or dry. Take down while still damp last point, though seemingly a small at least because we are too ignorant or and roll smoothly over a wide card- one, is nevertheless quite important. too lazy to take common sense pre- board, rolling a strip of white cloth Western farmers have found that caution against it. Of course there with it. Have the cloth long enough colts may be wintered exceedingly are exceptions. Sickness in some to cover the ribbon entirely and place well on shredded fodder and a light form is liable to come sometimes to the whole under a heavy weight. grain ration, while the refuse makes er written. Investments may turn out all. But if every one who reads this Leave them until they have had time very good bedding. The pitch in the well or ill as a rule, but wise inlittle article will act upon its suggest to dry. The ribbon will come out in butts of the cornstalks absorb the vestment in public education has nevtions, it is not likely that one of them much better shape than if as ironed. will ever have the fever. But as the world goes, each one living in a "happy go lucky" way, it is pretty safe to predict that many readers of this very

The steps necessary to the avoidis necessary, but that is needed to secure anything that is desirable. Two of water indiscriminately, wherever trial does not do try the second. one may be, whenever a little thirst is | For paint on clothing use equal felt, but to wait until one comes to parts of ammonia and turpentine, satthe usual source of supply known to urate the spots two or three times and be safe. This is far more likely to be then wash out in hot suds of rain a cistern than a well. The water from water and pearline; soap suds will the clouds has been distilled by na not remove it, but no matter how hard ture's perfect process, and if the house the paint is, this method rids it en- The cow utilizes only about 25 per rain, whenever the weather has long been dry, before the water is turned into the cistere, and if the cistern be tight, there is little danger. The other caution, always in point, is to keep the premises clean. Do not damy newspapers have lately given currency to reports by irresponsible parties to the effect throw garbage, or dirty water upon that the ground near the house, and es- THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO out-houses at a safe distance. And here the free use of dry dirt, daily, will work wonders, both in preventing bad odors and in guarding against disease. "Mother Earth" is a dear friend of

If there are cases of fever at hand, of course the care should be increased. In case of doubt as to the safety of drinking water, boil it before using. Those having to do with typhoid patients should see to it that all the excrements from the bowels of the sick one are thoroughly disinfected. The Kentucky State Board of Health recommends for this purpose chloride of lime (to be found in any drugstore) dissolved in water. The expense is very slight. A single ounce of the chloride of lime in a pint of water left in the vessel with the bowel discharges for an hour before criminal offense to neglect such pre-

People are wild with alarm if there seems to be any probability of smallpox or cholera visiting their neighborhood. Too many practically invite typhoid fever by their criminal carelessness. Yet ten die of the fever where one dies of the other diseases combined. Sound far and wide the warning to guard against this the greatest destroyer of human life in our Food Changed To Poison Putrefying food in the intestines produces effects like those of arsenic, but Dr. King's New Life Pills expel the poisons from clogged bowels, gently, easily but surely, curing Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Fevers, all Liver, Kidney and Bowel

THE HOME.

CLEANING RIBBONS.

Fill a glass fruit jar about three-shake out each one separately and to the weather, with the result that we provide for the present generation. In general it is a person's own hang over a clean, white cloth in the much of the fodder heated and Then the schools should be our greatfault if he has typhoid fever. This is open air; leave them exposed to the spoiled. These men have ever since est concern from the standpoint of true of nearly all the troubles of life. air and sunshine until all odor has been willing to condemn the process either selfishness or patriotism. The We all agree that most people could disappeared. No pressing will be as a useless and expensive one, but support of good and proper schools avoid poverty if they were industrious, necessary. Pour off the clear gaso the careful farmer who shreds his fod is not an expense, but an investsensible, economical, that people could line into your tank and empty out the der into the baymow when it is dry, ment. It is an investment that always have a good reputation and be redirt which will have settled in bottom and keeps it dry, is as enthusiastic in pays a direct and liberal return both spected, it they would "quit their of jar. The same gasoline can be re- praise of the method as his neighbor in money and in better citizens. It is meanness"; and that a very large ma- turned to the jar if one wishes, keep- is in opposition to it. jority of painful or fatal accidents ing it tightly covered. It will do to Expert investigation has shown that paper will die of typhoid fever, and remarked that the following recipes to mix the grain with the fodder. This A large proportion of those who at some of them during the coming had saved her many dollars besides is the natural way, and aids the tend these schools never enter a high labor, I asked her at once to please animal to digest the grain more thore school or college. In fact, many fail ing of typhoid fever are not expensive other sister-women with them. She grain were fed separately. It is hard course. If the stability of a free govor difficult. A little thoughtfulness responded by giving me her methods, ly advisable nor expedient to follow ernment depends upon the education and I think that every mother rearing this method with cattle receiving a of the people, it is of the greatest ima young family should have them. It heavy grain ration, which may be fed portance that our rural schools-the kinds of precautions should be taken is how to remove ink spots and paint separately more easily and quickly schools wherein most of our future at all times, even if there be no fever and grease stains, etc., and it does it than in any other way. in the neighborhood. First, care successfully too. Whenever you get should be taken that the water drank an ink spot on your garments wash it should be pure. It may be clean and at once in cold water so as to remove sparkling, entirely agreeable to the as much of the ink as possible—then taste, and yet the deadly germs be wash the stain in lemon-juice and salt, lurking in it. It is best not to drink and lay in the sun to dry. If the first pecially not near the sources of water supply. It is better to dig pits for such things, filling frequently and sewing machines for over a quarter of a century, and have established a reputation for ourdigging new ones. Especially have selves and our machines that is the envy of all others. Our "New Home" machine has never been rivaled as a family machine.—It stands at the head of all High Grade sewing machines, and stands on its own merits.

AN ECONOMICAL RECIPE.

The "New Home" is the only really HIGH GRADE Sewing Machine on the market.

It is not necessary for us to enter into a trust to save our credit or pay any debts as we have no debts to pay. We have never entered into competition with manufacturers of low grade cheap machines that are made to sell regard-less of any intrinsic merits. Do not be de-ceived, when you wanta sewing machine don't send your money away from home; call on a "New Home" Dealer, he can sell you a better machine for less than you can purchase elsewhere. If there is no dealer near you,

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO ORANGE, MASS.

New York, Chicago, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., Atlanta, Ga., Dallas, Tex., San Francisco, Cal.

SISCO & CO., Nicholasville, Ky.

REPAIR THAT LOOM.

Berea College has secured a market for homespun and home-woven goods, emptying it, will remove nearly all such as bed coverlids, linen, dress the danger. It should be made a linsey, jeans, blankets, etc., at following prices:-

> cents a yard; Dress Linsey, 50 cents a yard; Jeans, 60 cents a yard; Blankets, natural brown wool or bark dves, $3 a pair.

are not in demand only on orders. Coverlids must be 2 yards (72 inches) for life. wide, and 2½ yards (90 inches) long. laureate degrees All dyes used must be old fashioned home-made dyes.

Any woman who wants to sell coverlids or homespun to Berea College son or by letter to Mrs. Hettie W. Graham, Berea, Ky.

THE FARM.

SHREDDED FODDER

Opinions have varied much as to abouts has been less than in many fourths full of gasoline, put in your the usefulness of shredded fodder, fulness of the future citizens of the other localities. But the year 1902 soiled ribbons of any kind or color, but those who have been strongest in county will depend in very large meashas seen a wide prevalence of this except white; screw the cover down as their condemnation have probably ure upon what the public schools do disease in various parts of our Com- tightly as possible. Leave the rib- not given it a fair trial. When the for the children now, and the future monwealth, and it has been more bons in for three or four hours; shak-shredder first came into use many standing of the county intellectually, than usually fatal. The approach of ing the jar several times in the mean-shredded their fodder into stacks like politically, and financially will depend cold weather is favorable, but it by no time. Then take out the ribbons, straw, and often left the stacks open apon the character and kind of schools shredded fodder, if kept dry, has as liquid manure readily, and in some er failed to make the world better .respects this refuse makes better (ED.) bedding than straw.

and grain is cheap it will hardly pay state of efficiency." to shred fodder, as the process is rather an expensive one, but when hay is scarce and prices are prohibitive, shredded fodder will be found a very acceptable substitute. The most essential point with shredded fodder is a dry place in which to sto e it. With this secured, satisfactory results are pressed in season and out of season almost sure to follow,-Selected.

roof is allowed to be rinsed off by the tirely. Remove grass stains by wash- cent of her food in the production of milk, the remainder going to support prair her body and into the manure heap. edy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneu-This estimate does not apply to all monia, but after taking the second cows, however, as some of them give dose of this medicina I felt better, more or less milk than others; but all three bottles of it cured my cold and cows must be maintained from the the pains in my chest disappeared enfood consumed, and one good cow for health, RALPHS. MEYERS, 64 Thirwill therefore give more profit than ty seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For another that is inferior.

THE SCHOOL.

WISE WORDS.

The individual happiness and use an investment that we must make or suffer great loss in the capital we already have. It is a matter, too, about which we can not hesitate or procastinate. .Will you sacrifice your money and save your child, or sacrifice your child in an attempt to save your money?-Supt. M. L. Duggan, of Georgia.

These are indeed wise words. This world is dependent upon the coming generation for its progress toward a higher life as well as for things material. "The support of good and proper schools is not an expense, but an investment." Truer words were nev-

"Considerable more than half of In feeding to dairy cattle which ret the pupils in our public schools re-When a very practical home-wife ceive a grain ration a good method is ceive their instruction in rural schools. give me the benefit of them to help oughly than if the roughage and to complete even the common school voters and legislators are being train-In seasons where feed is plentiful ed-should attain the highest possible

> "The problem of popular education is one that presses most heavily upon us. . . There is no measure that we now think of that would more directly and sensibly benefit the South than this one, and we hope it will be until it is realized in law and in fact.' -A'lanta Constitution

> > To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in tirely. I am most respectfully yours sale by S. E. WELCH, JR.

My skin was sallow, I had a bad taste in my mouth in the morning and my breath was offensive attimes and occasionally I had a bad headache. By the use of Ripaus Tabules I am in a condition to attend to my daily duties, my appetite is excellent and my digestion much im-

AT DRUGGISTS.

The five cent packet is enough for an ordinary occasion. The family bottle, sixty cents, contains a supply for a year.

Berea College Founded

PLACES THE BEST EDUCATION IN REACH OF ALL.

Coverlids, $4 to $6; Linen, 40 to 50 Over 40 Teachers and 900 Students (from 26 States). Largest College Library in Kentucky. NO SALOONS.

Applied Science-Two years course, with Agriculture for young men and Domestic Science for young ladies.

Normal Courses—For Teachers. Three courses, leading to County

White linsey and white blankets Certificate, State Certificate and State Diploma. Academy Course-Four years, fitting for College, for business and

College Courses-Literary, Scientific, Classical, leading to Bacca

Trade Schools—Carpentry, Printing, Housework, Nursing (two years)
Music—Reed Organ, Chcral (free), Vocal, Piano, Theory.

We are here to help all who will help themselves toward a Christian edu cation. Our instruction is a free gift. Students pay a small incidental fee to meet expenses of the school apart from instruction, and must also pay should find out what the College for board in advance. Expenses for term (12 weeks) may be wants before beginning to weave or spin. For information apply in peralists, Methodists, Presbyterians, and good people of all denominations

For INFORMATION and FRIENDLY ADVICE address the SECRETARY,

Berea, Madison County, Ky. WILL C. GAMBLE.

said to her:

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON VI, FOURTH QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, NOV. 9.

Text of the Lesson, Josh. xxiv. 14-25. Memory Verses, 14, 15-Golden Text, Josh, xxiv, 15 - Commentary Prepared by the Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.] 14, 15. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.

Joshua, having lived a bundred and ten years and being conscious that the time had come for him to go the way of all the earth, gathered the tribes of Israel and reminded them that not one thing had failed of all the good things which the Lord had spoken concerning COPYRIGHT BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION, 1892 them (chapter xxiv, 29; xxiii, 14). He called for the elders, the heads of tribes, the judges and officers to present themselves before God at Shechem, and there he rehearsed unto them the story of God's dealings with them and entreated them to fear the Lord and serve Him in sincerity and truth, telling them that whatever they might decide he was determined that he and his house would serve the Lord. It was in order that they and all that they had might serve Him that He had brought them forth from the land of Egypt, the house of bondage (Ex. iii, 12; x, 26). If we have been redeemed by the precious blood of Christ, it is in order that we may with humility and gladness serve the living and true God while we wait for His Son from heaven (I Thess. i, 9, 10; Acts xx, 19; Ps. c, 2). Our Lord taught His diseiples that as He was among them as one that serveth the way of service is the way of true greatness (Luke xxli. 24-27), and that by love we are to serve one another (Gal. v, 13).

16-18. God forbid that we should forsake the Lord to serve other gods. We also will serve the Lord, for He is our God.

They certainly had every reason to serve Him only and truly, for, as they said, He had brought their fathers out of the bondage of Egypt and preserved them and brought them to that land. and Joshua had just reminded them that the Lord had given them a land for which they did not labor, cities which they had not built and vine yards and olive yards which they had not planted (verse 13). Yet they had already had occasion to say many times in their brief history, "O Lord our God, other fords beside Thee have had dominion over us" (Isa. xxvi, 13). That which Daniel had to say to Belshazzar, "The God in whose hand thy breath is and whose are all thy ways hast theu not glorified" (Dan. v. 23). might be truthfully said to many other gentiles as well as Jews, and how many seem to forget that it is God alone who giveth us life and breath and all things and in whom we live and move and have our being (Acts xvii, 25, 28). This should be enough to lead any one to wish to serve such a ber me by. benefactor; but we cannot serve Him has created us, sin has separated us the cushions in silence. . from Him, and the carnal mind, being at enmity with God, cannot please God (Rom. vili, 7, 8). As freely as God by His own power redeemed Israel from Egypt that they might serve Him, so freely He redeems every one who will let Him that all such may serve Him and walk in newness of life for their own highest happiness as well as for His glory (Rom. III, 24; vi, 4, 6, 11, 13, 19-21. And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the Lord.

Joshua in reply to their assurance that they would serve the Lord reminds them that they must be sincere. for the Lord is both holy and jealous. Holy is the only word that is used of God three times in one verse, and that only in two places (Isa. vi, 3; Rev. iv. 8). He, being holy, requires a holy people (Lev. xix, 2; I Pet. i, 15, 16), a people willing to be wholly His, separated unto Himself alone, that He may do His utmost for them and be magnified in them. God is called jealous in just seven different places (Ex. xx, 5; xxxiv, 14; Deut. iv, 24; v, 9; vi, 15; Josh. xxiv, 19; Nah. 1, 2), though His jealousy is spoken of in other passages. The thought implied is simply that He desires to possess fully that which is His for the highest good of the possession. He delights to give and to bless, but He is hindered by our half heartedness and lack of confidence in Him.

22-24. The Lord our God will we serve, and His voice will we obey.

Hearing their firm protestation of a great determination to serve the Lord, Joshua further tells them that in taking this stand they must understand that they are taking a stand against themselves, and they must turn with their whole heart to God by putting away all strange gods from among them. We all need this teaching so much, for we are inclined to take sides with ourselves against God. We are apt to say as Simon Peter said to our Lord when He first spoke of His sufferings and of His death on the cross, "Be it far from thee (pity thyself) Lord; this shall not be unto Thee." But our Lord immediately taught Simon and the other disciples that all who would follow Him must deny self and bear the cross (Matt. xvi, 22, 24).

25. So Joshua made a covenant with the

This verse and also verse 1 says that it was done at Shechem, and as Shechem was a city of refuge (xx, 7) d signifies "shoulder" it is all suggestive of this-that we must find in the Lord our constant refuge from self and sin and in our conscious weakness dwell between His shoulders and let the government of all our affairs and of ourselves also be upon His shoulder (Ps. xlvi, 7, 11; Deut. xxxiii, 12; Isa. ix, 6, 7). The stone that witnessed and heard it all (verse 27) is also suggestive of the stone of Isa. xxviii, 16; Ps. exviii, 22.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Sold by S. E. WELCH, JR.

The night was passed with snatches of sleep by all the party. In the morning, after the pork and corn bread meal of the country, the travelers again got into the carriages. While they were standing before the gate prior to departure Mark saw Souri out by the wellouse. He went there to bid her good-

"Souri," he said, "I wish there was some way in which I could show you the gratitude I feel toward you. When I think of my fate, had you not appeared in the nick of time to save me by your wit and daring and sacrifice, I feel that I would like to make some corresponding sacrifice for you."

'Laws, I didn't do nothen. Besides" she leaned over the well and looked down into its depths-"you uns and me is too differ. You uns is a gentleman, and I air poor white trash."

There was an inexpressible melancholy in her tone

"Souri," Mark went on, "I have made an arrangement with your father to make a lady of you. I can't make such a sacrifice for you as you have made for me; that is impossible; but I can do this, if you will act with me and consent to the plan. I shall be off in a moment, and before I go I want you to promise me that you will consent. I am still in danger, and you must grant me this as perhaps a last favor.

The girl burst into tears.

"Promise. "I don't keer what I do."

"Do you promise?"

"Yas, I promise." With a pressure of the hand he turned away, and stalking to the gate got into the carriage beside Laura. Daniel and Mrs. Fain had started. Mark followed. and had gone but a short distance when he heard Jakey calling to him. He pulled in the pony and waited for the boy to come up. Jakey was holding something out to him, which, as he drow nearer, Mark recognized as the red silk handkerchief.

"Souri sent it ter v'." "Tell her that I'll never part with it." "'N I got the squirrel gun," said the

"All right, Jakey. Keep it to remem-

Mark grasped the boy's hand and then till we are redeemed, for, although He drove on. Laura Fain leaned back on > CHAPTER XIX. THOMAS GREEN AND WIFE.

Do you take me to be your husband?" Mark designed driving to Anderson. some twelve miles from the Slacks' house, whence he knew there was a road leading up in the mountains through a place called Altamont, some twenty miles farther, to McMinnville. He was informed by people he met on the road that Altamont had been recently occupied in force by the Union troops. With luck they might reach the Union lines, which would doubtless extend several miles from Altamont, that afternoon.

"Within six hours," said Mark, "I shall either be safe among Union soldiers or on my way back to Chatta-

Laura shuddered, but said nothing. Mark found a very different condition of affairs at Anderson from what he had found along the road. The Confederates had some cavalry force there and more at Dunlap, five miles north. On the road he heard that General Bragg was at Dunlap, but with no troops save

"I see it all," said the spy to himself. "The wily fox is confronting our forces with a handful of cavalry, while the two divisions of Cheatham and Withers are marching north behind him, and the main force has gone to Knoxville by rail on a line still farther east. No wonder our generals are puzzled and watching a line from Battle creek to Cumberland gap. If the Lord will only let me get through to carry this information, I'll never ask to live to go on another such expedition."

The party were stopped near Anderson by a picket. Mrs. Fain produced her pass and stated that the two behind were in her company. The officer took no especial care in reading it, and when Mark and Laura came up they got safely through without question.

Mark was now anxious about the picket which must be passed in a few minutes on the road leading west from Anderson. Mrs. Fain was still ahead, and he hoped that all would go as well is at the picket just passed. Not a word was spoken between him and Laura; both dreaded getting out of Anderson, but once past the next picket they would breathe easier.

When they reached it Mrs. Fain had been passed through and gone on. The officer in command, however, had read the pass carefully. He had not noticed any mention of Mark in it.

"Where's your pass?" he asked. "Didn't the lady ahead show it to you?" asked Mark. "Her pass didn't include you."

"Didn't it?" Mark feigned surprise. "Oh, I forgot; mine and my wife's is eparate," and he drew out the pass of Thomas Green and wife." Meanwhile Laura had turned white as a cloth. The officer read the pass, and would doubtless have let them go had he not noticed Laura's agitation.

"You'll have to go back to headquarters and get Major Taliaferro's order on that. He commands at Anderson."

Mark remonstrated. He argued that he would become separated from Mrs. Fain: he urged his wife's desire to reach her sick father. All in vain. He was told that the headquarters were only half a mile down the road and he would lose but little time. He made a virtue of necessity and drove back with apparent good nature.

When he reached the house that was pointed out to him as headquarters, he left Laura in the phaeton and went inside. The commanding officer had gone to Dunlap, five miles away, to pay his respects to General Bragg, and would not be back for an hour or two.

Mark resolved to report his absence to the officer of the picket post, in the hope that he would not be compelled to wait. He drove to the picket and used his tongue persuasively, but to no purpose. The more anxious he seemed the more resolved grew the captain.

There seemed to be nothing to do but return and await the arrival of the commanding officer. Mark reluctantly turned the horse's head and drove back to headquarters. Laura's heart sank within her. It was sunset when Major Taliaferro, a pleasant looking man of twenty-seven or twenty-eight, rode up to the door, and turning his horse over to an orderly entered the office.

"Major Taliaferro?" asked Mark.

"At your service, sir." "Major, I have been detained by the officer at the picket, who wants your name on my pass. My wife's mother has gone on, and her daughter is very anxious to join her. It is extremely unfortunate for us to get so far separated from Mrs. Fain.'

"Fain, of the Fains of Chattanooga?" "The same."

"I have heard of the family, but have never had the pleasure of meeting any member of it. One of my friends is engaged to Miss Fain. I have just parted from him at Dunlap."

Mark and Laura cast a quick glance at each other-a glance of terror on the part of Laura.

'We are fortunate in falling into your hands," said Mark, and I beg you will not delay us a moment." And Mark handed him the pass.
"Certainly not." And the major took up a pen to write his indorsement. First read the pass carefully. He was thinking of what his friend Fitz Hugh had told him of the Fains. He was under the impression that there was but one daughter. "Mr. Green," he said, looking up from the pass, "hadn't you better stay here over night? The road is mountainous and infested by gurerillas. It is positively dangerous to travel."

"By no means. What would Mrs.

Fain think of our not joining her on the "It is dangerous for her as well as you.

I'll send a messenger after her and advise her stopping at some farmhouse. I'll do better than that, I'll send a corporal and half a dozen men to insure her safety till morning." There was something in the man's tone, polite as it was, that indicated to Mark that he was held for further information. "As you please, major."

"And I shall insist upon your accepting my hospitality. One connected in any way with my friend Fitz Hugh must not want for any comfort I can supply.'

The house occupied by Major Taliaferro belonged to a family who had gladly given up a portion of it for the safety insured by the presence of a commanding officer. The major was given a room down stairs for an office, and a bedroom up stairs. When it was decided that Mark and Laura should remain he gave Mrs. Green, as he called her. the use of the latter for the purpose of arranging her toilet before supper.

When Laura was up stairs Mark was looking out of the window of the major's office. He saw the men ride off to overtake Mrs. Fain. To his consternation another cavalryman, with a letter in his belt, mounted his horse and dashed down the road.

Laura came down at that moment, and Mark said to her anxiously, "I am detained on suspicion. I shall be taken back to Chattanooga," and he pointed to the courier. The color left Laura's cheeks. They had got so near to safety, and now, after so many dangers, the end was at hand. Bhe could scarcely sustain herself as she tottered into the room occupied as the

This is the letter the courier bore northward. It was addressed on the envelope to Captain Cameron Fitz Hugh, near Dunlap:

My Dear Cameron—A man purporting to be Thomas Green, with his wife, formerly a Miss Fain, of Chattanooga, is here, desiring a pass to the Union lines. There is something suspicious about the man. The couple are sep-arated from the wife's mother, and the father lies very ill at Nashville. I dislike to detain them, and I do not regard it safe to pass them.
Can you help me out of the difficulty? Yours very truly, WALLACE TALIAFERRO.

Major Taliaferro soon joined Mark and Laura in his office, and offering his arm to Laura led the way to the supper room. His treatment of both was most deferential, but it failed to deceive either that they were prisoners.

I nere was a strength of nerve in Mark that would not break while there was hope. He chatted with the host or jailer, whichever he might be called, with ease, and at times with gayety. Not so Laura. The situation was too frightful for her to endure without some manifestation of anxiety. She ate nothing. She did not hear what was said to her, and her eves plainly showed the troubled spirit within. Mark made no reference to her condition till after supper. Then, when all three went out on to the veranda, he "Come, let us take a stroll. You have been traveling all day, and this delay troubles you. A walk in the air will re-

Mark assumed with such apparent carelessness that he was free to walk about where he liked that Taliaferro had not the will to stop him. Besides he had no heart to interfere with the pleasure of a woman whom he was pretending to treat as a guest. The couple walked leisurely down the road, Mark looking at the sunset tints with well assumed indifference, occasionally pointing to some object by the way or in the distance, calling Laura's attention to it at the same time. He knew the major's gaze was fixed upon him, and he was doing all this for a purpose.

The road led straight from the house a short distance and then entered a wood. As soon as they were concealed behind the trees Mark stopped suddenly and turned to Laura:

'My God, this is terrible!" "You are lost!" said Laura faintly.

She could scarcely speak the words. "I? Yes, I. But you-what have I led you into? Why was it not over on that morning when it was intended? Then you would not be implicated; now your good name is"- "No one will trouble me," she gasped. But you-they will drag you"-

"You have protected me-a spy. Not only that -that is nothing in comparison with having passed as my wife. There is a blight.'

"I can bear it."

"There is but one way out of this disgrace. You must be married before we return to that house. And to whom?"his voice changed from a rapid, excited tone to deepest gloom-"to one who must die-die on the scaffold. At any rate you will be free. You will be a widow.' Laura stood, the very impersonation of despair.

"All I can do to atone for this," Mark went on rapidly, "and it is nothing-is to make you my wife, since I have passed ou as such. Laura, will you marry me?" She looked at him earnestly. Her eyes were big with deep emotion. There was a look in them that he could not un-

"No!" "Then I can do nothing for you." "I will marry only the man who loves me, and whom I love." "Oh, Laura," he said, "if your heart were only mine, then it would be different. I love you so well, I worship you with such fervor that I would go back to that dreadful jail without a word could I place you where you were before you met me. But you' Laura burst into a torrent of tears. This man, who had so suddenly appeared in her life; who had won her sympathy; who had compelled her admiration; who had absorbed her whole being into his daring, chivalrous, reckless nature-this man loved her, and he was doomed. With a cry she threw her arms around "Laura, sweetheart," said Mark, caressing her, "we have but little time. We know not whom we shall have to face. My true character must soon be known. Will you give yourself to one who will doubtless tomorrow be claimed

Pale as ashes she put her hand over his mouth that he might not speak the word "death."

"Will vou? Speak!" "Yes, now, quick; what can we do?" "Marry ourselves."

"How?" He grasped her hand. There was a ring upon it-a plain gold band. He took it off, and putting it on her finger again said: "I, Mark"

"Is it really Mark?"

"Yes, I am Mark Maynard, I, Mark, take you, Laura, to be my wife. Do you take me to be your husband?" "I do."

"Then we are man and wife in the sight of God"-

"And for man we care not." "Man and wife under the law."

are really married."

Scarcely was this hurried ceremony over when a cavalryman came riding leisurely from the direction of headquarters. He had been sent by Major Taliaferro-who, as soon as Mark was out of sight, became anxious with regard to him-with instructions to keep him in sight without appearing to do so. There was nothing left for them to do but return to the house. As they walked Mark whispered: "I feel again all the confidence I have ever felt. I must live to make you happy. Be ready for anything that may happen, my darling, my wife. I shall doubtless play some bold game; I don't know what, but it will be bold. If I leave you suddenly, meet me (should I succeed in my attempt) within the Union lines. If not, we will meet-in heaven.

These few words were all that Mark had time to say to his newly married wife. For scarcely had they turned to go back when they met the major. He was uneasy lest Mark should depart without leave. He accompanied them back to the house.

CHAPTER XX. FLIGHT.

It was nine o'clock in the evening. Major Taliaferro and his guests were sitting in his office room chatting. A clatter of horses' hoofs was heard at the front of the house and some one dismounted. In another moment there was a tramp of cavalry boots in the hall; all turned to the open door-and there stood Captain Cameron Fitz Hugh.

For a moment he regarded Mark and Laura sterniy; then advancing a rew steps he bowed low to Laura.

"Captain," said the major rising, "I suppose it is useless to deny to this lady and gentleman that I deemed it my duty to make sure of their identity before allowing them to pass. The family to which they claim to belong is known to you; therefore I sent to you for information. I see you have answered my inquiry in person. If you vouch for them I shall be happy to pass them in the morning, and shall apologize for their detention at the same time-my excuse being the cause we serve."

All' eyes were fixed on Fitz Hugh, Mark's and Laura's with ill concealed anxiety.

"This was Miss Fain," said Fitz Hugh. "She would not be traveling as any man's wife unless she were married to him. If you detain them, you must do so on your own responsibility.'

Both Mark and Laura drew a sigh of relief.

"I have no desire to detain them." said Taliaferro, "after what you have said, but it is altogether too late for them to proceed tonight. The only amends I can make for discommoding them is to make them comfortable. Mrs. Green, your room is ready for you."

had not been my rival I would love you as a brother,"

The pain that would otherwise have attended this scene was alleviated in Laura's heart by the delight she felt at a prospect of safety for her husband. She gave her former affianced a look of gratitude. Then she glanced at Mark for instructions. Seeing no hint in his eyes she passed out of the room and went up stairs.

"Captain," said Mark, "may I beg a cigar? I usually smoke at this time of night."

"Here are cigars, gentleman," said Taliaferro, producing a box.

"If you smoke, captain," added Mark, I shall be pleased with your company." "With pleasure."

All lighted cigars, and Mark and Fitz Hugh strolled out on the veranda. "Captain," said Mark as soon as they were outside, "I have never met a man whom I have so admired, so honored, as you, and yet I have robbed you of your ove. This last act of kindness to her and to me, so well indicating your magnanimity, is more than I can bear. I cannot accept anything more, even for her sake. I cannot stay here to be shielded by you and behind her skirts. I am about to leave this veranda and fly need all you can give her, for I never expect to see her again. I shall doubtless be captured before tomorrow noon. If you were not my enemy, if you had not been my rival, I would love you as a brother.'

Without waiting for a reply Mark left the veranda, and in another moment was lost in the darkness.

Captain Fitz/Hugh stood as one petrified. So many conflicting emotions were within him that nothing seemed real. For a time he was in a sort of stupor. When he emerged from it the first thing that took definite shape in his mind was a deliberation as to what he should do. Should he go in and confess all to the in Richmond. a deliberation as to what he should do. major? Should he keep the secret-Laura's secret? He leaned against a pillar of the veranda and passed his hand over his brow. He could not stab Laura; he could not even betray the man who had left her in his care. He did nothing.

Half an hour had elapsed when Taliaferro, who had been busying himself with some papers, began to wonder what had become of the two men. He got up and went out on the veranda.

"Where's Green?" he asked quickly. "Gone." "Gone?"

"Yes, gone half an hour ago."

"What does this mean, Cameron?" "It means that I have been keeping from you what I can keep no longer or I would. This man Green is a Federal

Taliaferro threw up his hands in hor-"And you have been protecting him!"

"Yes." "Cameron-my friend-great Godare you a traitor? There is something back-tell me, quick." "Twice before he has crossed my path. He was taken and tried at Chattanooga. I was detailed to defend him. I had never seen him before. He was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged, but escaped. "When I met him again it was at the Fains' house. Laura Fain, the woman up stairs, then my betrothed, but nowhis wife, was concealing him.'

"I saw that she was infatuated with him. She claimed him for her guest.

"Well, go on." "I could not honorably inform on him.'

"Oh, Cameron-what absurditywhat idiocy-what"---"This afternoon you sent for me.

poblest of all women-his wife." The major only stared at his friend;

e nau no words to express ms reenings, his sympathy.

"When we came out here he told me that he would accept nothing further for himself at my hands; that he would not shield bimself behind a woman's skirts. He walked away before me."

"And you?" "I permitted him."

Taliaferro shuddered. He knew that his friend by his act had placed himself in a terrible position.
"Cameron," he said, "do you know you are liable to be shot for this?' "I do." . "I always told you," the major went on anxiously, impatiently, "that your notions of honor were absurd, quixotic.' "The highest sense of honor is never quixotic. It is best fitted for a Christian, a soldier and a gentleman." "And do you expect me to let this spy go?"

"No. Protect yourself-the cause. Send after him. It is I who have connived at his escape, not you. You must not suffer."

"The cause alone is enough." "Orderly," he called to a man standing by the gate. The soldier approached and stood at attention. "Go tell Captain Heath that the man who was here this evening has gone, and I want him followed and brought back. Tell him to send by all the roads."

The man saluted and went away. [TO BE CONTINUED.]

Necessary Expenses for Twelve Weeks' School.

Persons who board themselves can spend as much or little as they choose on living expenses. It pays to have a little extra money for lectures, books, and other things. But the necessary expenses are only as follows:

To pay the first day:

Winter term.

#ALL HALL $ 4 50 $4 50 School (Incidental Fee ... Hospital Fee ... Hospital Fee ... Books, etc., about (General-Deposit ... Furnished Room, fuel First Month's Board ... Living 17 00 18 00

Total Expense, 12 Weeks . 27 50 27 00 For those below A Grammar deduct the $2 for books, and $1 from incidental fee, making the total only $24.50.

Gen'l Deposit returned

When four girls room together each saves $2 or nore on room and fuel, making the total, only $22.50, if classed below A Grammat. Room and fuel cost one dollar more in the

Two rooms for housekeeping, with stoves, etc., can usually be rented for from $4 to $6 a term The price of a big calf, a little tan-bark, or a few home-spun bed-covers, will give a term of school which will change one's whole life for the better!

A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by overto the Union lines. Thank God, I have met one who is the soul of honor, in whose charge I leave my wife. Consider her under your care. She will doubtless need all you can give her for I record all your can give her for I record all you may refuse to digest what you eat.
Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contains soon restore health. Dieting unnecessary. Kodol quickly relieves the feeiing of fulness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals.

Absolutely cures indigestion.

Kodol Nature's Tonic. Prepared only by E. C. DEWITT & Co., Chicago.
The $i. bottle contains 2½ times the 50c. size.

Three Years

And out of all the sets of teeth that have been made at my office, if there is one set or any sets that show any defects, I will make a new set free. We are making the best set of teeth in the world for $7.50, and if detects show in five years we give you a new set free This applies to all the teeth I have made or am going to make the best alloy fills in the world at 75 cents.

DR. HOBSON, Dentist

Permanently located in the Hobsor Building-next door to Gov ernment Building.

Richmond, - . Kentucky

Special Price to Students.

Cut this out and take it to S. E. Welch, Jr.'s, drugstore and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomcame. I saw the man I had seen twice ach, improve the appetite and regubefore-with my-with the loveliest, the late the bowels. Regular size, 25c per box.

Reference, Richmond National Bank We promptly obtain U. S. and Foreign BEST BREAD at Bicknell & Early's.

Mrs. Nancy Galloway has married Mr. Veatch, of Richmond.

Mrs. Henry West and Mrs. W. C. Kelly are on the sick list.

Mrs. Frances Glasco has returned from a trip to Beattyville. Dr. L. R. Raymond celebrated his 81st birthday on the 30th ult. Fresh Graham and New Corn Meal every Saturday at J. C. Sharp's. The stock at the Racket Store in Richmond is fresh and complete.

Walter Bogie returned Monday, off a three weeks' drive with a drummer. CENT STORE, next door to postoffice, Richmond, Ky. A good Hand-saw for 50c at the Racket Store, Main street, Richmond, Miss Welsh gave the girls in the Hall a very delightful Hallowe'en one of the kind in the U. S. For

Miranda Kelly, of Red Lick, died Sunday. Burial at Old Red Lick

Shelf Hardware at bargain prices at the Racket Store, Main s'reet, Richmond, Ky. Cassius M. Coyle, formerly well known here, is visiting friends in this vices at Farristown Sunday evening rea's work. Burdette & Sons have a Stevenden blower in their planing mill, and it is Harry C. Sharp is home on a visit. He will return to Morehead late in overthe month. Mrs. Hoag is kept very busy preparing new beds for the opening of the winter term. There is food for thought in the communication, "Kentucky Honor;" don't fail to read it. Mr Hermenegild Klima, of the government printing office, is visiting friends in Berea. Mrs. Nellie Kedzie Jones returned to Berea last Friday afternoon. Dr. Kedzie is still seriously sick.

et Store, Main street, Richmond, Ky.

done the football boys. The piece bome nights and mornings and Saturentitled "Kentucky Honor" tells all days, and every parent who cares for about it.

No lover of flowers should miss seeing the beautiful display of white chrysanthemums in Mrs. E. T. Fish's front yard.

Standard Goods of all kinds at low contribution entitled "Kentucky Honor." Every Berea citizen should read and ponder it.

Died, Sunday at 3 a. m., Gertrude, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wyatt. Burial on Tuesday at the cemetery.

Any one having good wool from black sheep can sell it to Mrs. Hettie Wright Graham, Clover Bottom Cottage, Jackson street, Berea.

Judge T. J. Coyle has three houses Berea to put their children in school.

join her husband at Josephine, Miss., Bruce.

Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Carnaban, of Toledo, O, spent a day in Berea last week. The professor is general agent for Ginn & Co., educational book publishers.

Wm. F. Wood, second son of our former citizen, Esq. Jas. M. Wood, has sold his property in Eden, Ill, and is prospecting for a place of business in Berea.

OUR PREMIUM SEWING MACHINE is as good as you can get from any agent for FIFTY DOLLARS, and you can get it without costing you any money at Former students W. A. Hubbard and Bettie Pendergrass, recently married in Owsley county, called in Berea Friday last on their way to heir New Hampshire home.

Mrs. W. J. Tatum and B. P. and Burdette entertained friends Satur- ways men of honor, buy two tickets, Wm. Terrill, died in Denver, Col., day night.-Miss Fannie Adams is come inside, and enjoy the game with and was buried from the Glade visiting her sister, Mrs. Maud Tisdall, a clear conscience.—A Director of the Church Tuesday last.

Jo. S. Joplin, of Richmond, has the largest and best selected stock for Furniture of all kinds to be found in many a mile. His prices are very low, and he guarantees the quality.

The foot-ball game Saturday last on Lincoln field, between Berea and Kentucky University, scored 62 to 0 ing, and conducted by Rev. J. W in favor of K. U. Only one team has Rooks, a large number of persons at this year.

Rev. Thos. L. Routt, class of 1899, had a cheering revival in his church. sending greetings to Berea.

10 cents. Six quart tin pail, Three cakes tar soap, Four ounces smelling salts, 10 " All first quality goods at THE TEN

HELP WANTED .- F. F. and G. C Hall, former Berea students, now operate a Mail Order Business, the only free price list and information, address C. F. Hall Co., 105-107 W. Adams street, Chicago, Ill. Note .-Berea references given if desired.

An article in the Lancet-Clinic, of Cincinnati, and another in the Daily Enquirer gave very appreciative and complimentary accounts of Berea and its institutions. Despite their good intentions the writers, from the briefness of their visits, were led into a few Rev. Wm. Lodwick will hold ser- exaggerations as to the scope of Be-

The Berea Banking Co. solicits your banking business. Every favor and courtesy extended that is consistent with safe and conservative banking. Come in and see us, and let's talk it

J. J. Moore, President.

J. Burdette, Vice-President.

W. H. Porter, Cashier. L. G. Williams, Ass't Cashier.

E. T. Fish, Director. P. Cornelius, Director.

J. E. Johnson, Director.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Persons desiring to rent houses in Berea for winter term should apply to Treas. Osborne at once. He has rent-Dinner Plates 30c a set; 13 inch ed above twenty houses, and has less Meat Platters, 10c each, at the Rack- than ten left.

Parents take notice. Many C. M. Rawlings has moved to parents are doing their children a Red Lick, to take charge of the tim- great wrong in keeping them out of ber operation, of Messrs. Weisbrood the free schools this fall. The excuse is that the children can do a little Last Saturday an injustice was work at home. But they can help at his children should keep them in

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY. CONWAY.

Mrs. Henry Hamblin was visiting prices at the Racket Store, 'Main St., at her father's Sunday. -Born to the Richmond, Ky. ONE PRICE TO ALL wife of Henry Hamblin, a girl, on the 26th.-L L. Jarrett was here Mon-On this page is an important day and Tuesday taking up spokes .-Mr. S. W. Baker left Saturday for parts unknown.—Sandford Lambert has returned home.-Dan Chenault, of R chmond, was here looking over his land lately purchased of Conway Mercantile Co.—Brother Dan Phelps and Brother Mullins have been holding a revival meeting at Macedonia, with several additions. - John Marcus brother, J. H. Sigm nd, Sat urday .-A. J. Johnston returned home Thursday evening from a business trip to nearly completed which will be oc- Rogersville and Richmond.-Three cupied by parties who will come to small children of Eph. Branna man are very ill, one with typhoid fever; us all? Mrs. R. B. Woodford has gone to one, diphtheria; and one with a brokn arm.-Mr. J. M. Nope was in Mt. where he has the position of business Vernon Monday on business.—J. R manager on the estate of Mrs. Senator McCollom celebrated his 69th birthday Thursday, Oct. 23 .- Mr. and Mrs. brother, Mr. S. D. Johnston, of Big Hill, Friday .- Mrs. Susan Miller and daughter, Mrs. Sam Croucher, of Disputanta, were visiting Mrs. Toswell Huff Sunday .- J. R. McCollom and family were visiting the family of A. J. Johnston Sunday.—Evangelist Peterson is holding a series of meetings here.

MADISON COUNTY. HICKORY GROVE.

Misses Bertha and Mollie Jones at -Owen Duvall, of Preachersville, was the goats. here last week on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson. - Mr. and Mrs. Ben Adams spent Sunday with Mr. June Terrill, youngest brother of and Mrs. Daniel Maupin.-The Misses heart, and like true Kentuckians, alof Whites Station.

VALLEY VIEW

Lee Harris Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Taylor, who was bitten by a dog a few weeks ago, died Saturday, Nov. 1, from the effects of the bite, showing symptoms of hydrophobia. The funeral was on Sunday evenscored against Kentucky University tending .- Mr. Haynes, a former teacher here, visited the school last week -Several of our people went to Casis at La Fayette, Ala. He has just sius Clay's woods for hickory nuts last week .-- Misses Lucy Reynolds and His wife and baby Ethel join him in Addell Phelps were in Richmond Saturday.-Two cows went mad here recently. One belonging to Dr. Bailey ran against a tree, and was killed .-Rev. Mr. Nichols, presiding elder of the A. M. E. church, preached here Tuesday night.

JACKSON COUNTY. KERBY KNOB.

Mrs. James Hays and son James of McKee, and Mr. Wm. Jones paid Mr. and Mrs. William. Hays a visit. They were on their way to McKee from Lancaster, where they had been visiting the daughter of Mrs. Hays, Dr. Green Sandlin's wife. - Levi Kimberlin and family have moved near Bear Wallow, where they expect to One Mile West of Panola, Madison make their future home.-Dr. Daugherty has sold his farm to Lafayette Williams.—Joseph Hays is seriously ill with chills, possibly from malarial fever, or else an injured foot, caused Kingston.- Dr. Daugherty will go to Louisville this coming week to buy a to suit purchasers. fresh supply of goods.

KENTUCKY HONOR.

Kentuckians are jealous of their honor. It has never been safe to call a Kentuckian a liar. The typical Kentucky man wants it understood that his word is always as good as his bond; that he will always do the ting for nothing that which cost their and Lung diseases. 50c and $1.00 at neighbors and friends hard cash. It takes money, and a good deal of it to bring 16 men here from Lexington. and send them back. The football boys had to pay the L. & N. R. R. 32 fares, and then there were bills for hotel, livery and advertising. It costs the ball players over $65 "spot cash" to give us a delightful afternoon of sport. Every one who looked at the game was in honor bound to help pay his share of the cost. Enough saw the game to have about met all expenses. But sad to relate for Kentucky honor far more staid outside the fence to see the sport than went inside. Some of the outsiders came in carriages. Most of them were well and Babe Sigmond we re with their dressed. They would have been ashamed to beat their way into a lecture or concert. But what is the difference as a point of honor between doing that and beating the boys who carry on athletics for the pleasure of

It is delightful to see and meet the real Kentucky gentleman. Mr. Burnam, of Paint Lick, came in his family carriage, paid to bring in his family, and made the management a gift A. J. Johnston visited the former's of $1.00 to help on manly sports. Such courtesy is appreciated. We are glad and grateful to make public are glad and grateful to make public mention of it. Mr. Dan Breck, of Richmond, also gave the boys $1.00. we are selling Team Harness that isn't equaled by any sold anywhere at the price. There isn't a weak Those who know our genial insurance place in it. man are not surprised.

Some of our neighbors, who were on the wrong side of the fence last Saturday, are true Kentuckians in their love of honor and fair play. Now that they clearly understand that they took for nothing what cost somebody else the ready money, they tended a social, near High Point, will never do it again. Already they are Wednesday night.—Tom McKeehan has returned from a trip to Louisville. the outside of the fence again among plied and five minutes later the pain has returned from a trip to Louisville. the outside of the fence again among

> There are to be more games this fall. In the name of fair play come out next time, bring your wife or sweet-Athletic Association.

NOTICE.

Two weeks from to day in our issue of Nov. 13 we will commence a new story,

"Chickamauga."

It is by the same author as "CHAT-TANOOGA," and is really a sequel to that story, now nearly completed in THE CITIZEN. Tell your friends about it and get them to subscribe at once, so as to receive the first of this thrilling story.

If you're billious and seeking advis-Take DeWitt's Little Early [ers, Just before going to bed. [Risers. You will find on the morrow, You are rid of your sorrow-

That's all; just enough said. These famous pills do not gripe but move the bowels gently and easily, cleansing the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the glands, preventing a return of the disorder.

Farm for Sale

For sale by East End Drug Co.

County, Ky.

Containing about one hundred and from falling from a house he was re- seventy-five (175) acres of good grazpairing last winter.-J. D. Creech ing or corn land; well watered; about visited friends here last Saturday and twenty five (25) acres of good timber, Sunday .- Miss Maggie Garlan, who oak, hickory, maple, etc.; good bearhas been visiting her sister, Mrs. Har- ing orchard of apples, peaches, pears, vey Mahaffey, in Owsley county, has etc.; good six-room dwelling with returned home. - Miss China Hudson good spring near the door; stable and is visiting her sister and friends at corn-crib with sheds and outbuildings. Will be sold as a whole or in tracts

For price, terms, etc., address,

Thomas Million,

Richmond, Ky.

Or call at the farm.

"It often made my heart ache," right thing whether there was a pre- writes L. C. Overstreet, of Elgin, vious bargain or not. Yet a man of Tenn., "to hear my wife cough until honor sometimes does a dishonorable it seemed her weak and sore lungs thing. When this happens it is al- would collapse. Gord doctors said ways through ignorance. He would she was so far gone with Consumpnever do a mean thing if he knew it tion that no medicine or earthly help were mean. Some of the people who could save her, but a friend recomwent to see the game last Saturday mended Dr. King's New Discovery and stood outside of the fence, instead and persistent use of this excellent of buying a ticket and going inside, medicine saved her life." It's absodid not know they were doing a dis- lutely guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, honorable thing. But they were get- Bronchitis, Asthma and all Throat more work with less expenditure of energy if his harness is a good fit. Costs no more to have it that way.

The Horse Will Get Through

High Grade and Perfect Fitting Harness is sold here at the price of the badly made, ill-fitting kind that is widely advertised by mail-order houses.

At $18.00

T. J. Moberly,

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail. The little daughter of Mr. J. N Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and had disappeared and no more sufferthe child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by S. E. WELCH, JR.

Lion Coffee

The East End Drug Company

On Main Street, Berea.

Fills prescriptions from Pure Drugs accurately. Sells Drugs and Patent Medicines cheaper than you can buy them in any other town in Eastern Kentucky.

We are headquarters for Fine Shelf Groceries, Fresh Fruits, Ice Cream, Soda Water, Etc. You save money by buying of us. We solicit your patronage. Call and see us.

L. A. Pettus.

C. C. Rhodus, Proprietor.

This will save your Life

Dr. King's New Discovery

Consumption, Coughs and Colds.

The only Guaranteed Cure. NO Cure. NO Pay. Your Drug

ABSOLUTELY CURES

Grip, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis Whooping Cough, Pneumonia. or any Affection of the Throat and Lungs.

TRIAL BOTTLES FREE.
Regular Size 50 cents and $1.00

DR. FENNER'S KIDNEY and

Backache

Don't become discouraged. There cure for you. If necessary write Dr. Fe He has spent a life time curing just cases as yours. All consultations Free. "Eight mouths in bed, heavy backache, pain and soreness across kidneys, also rheu-matism. Other remedies failed. Dr. Fen-ner's Kidney and Backache Cure cured me completely. H. WATERS, Hamlet, N. Y." Druggists. 50c., $1. Ask for Cook Book-Free,

ST. VITUS'DANCE Sure Cure. Circular, Dr.

Canvasser Wanted to sell PRINTERS' INK.

a journal for advertisers, published weekly at five dollars a year. It teaches the science and practice of Advertising, and is highly esteemed by the most successful advertisers in this country and Great Britain. Liberal commission allowed. Address

> PRINTERS' INK. 10 Spruce St., New York

Bad Coughs

"I had a bad cough for six weeks and could find no relief until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pecto-ral. Only one-fourth of the bottle L. Hawn, Newington, Ont.

Neglected colds always lead to something serious. They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or consumption.

Don't wait, but take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral ust as soon as your cough begins. A few doses will cure you then.

Cured of Piles After 40 Years. Mr. C. Haney of Geneva, Ohio, had the piles for forty years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, buises, sprains, lacerations, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package-all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. For sale by East End Drug Co.

West End Meat Market

For Fresh Meats, Salt Meats, Sliced Ham, Lard, Sausage, Vegetables, etc. Highest price for Country

R. H. ROYSTON.

Opposite Burdett's Mill.

Says He Was Tortured. "I suffered such pain from corns could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Ills., Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them." Acts like magic sprains, bruises, cuts, sores, scalds, burns, boils, ulcers. Perfect healer ing was experienced. In three days of skin diseases and piles. Cure guar-

FIFTY CENTS A YEAR Drug Co.

One Minute Cough Cure. Is the only harmless cough cure that gives relief. Cures Coughs, Colds, Croup, Brouchitis, Whooping Cough Pneumonia, Asthma, LaGrippe and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. I got soaked by rain, says Gertrude E. Fenner, Muncie, Ind., and contracted a severe cold and cough, I failed rapidly; lost 48 lbs. My druggist recommended One Minute Cough Cure. The first bottle brought relief; several cured me. I am back to my old weight, I48 lbs. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, relieves the cough at once, draws out inflammation, cures croup. An ideal remedy for children. For sale by East End Drug Co.

Have your meas ure taken for your new Fall garments. It is the only proper and satisfactory way of buying your clothes. Make your selection from the tailoring line of STRAUSS BROS Chicago, Est., 1877.

You'll find a world of pleasure in wearing the clothes made by Strauss Bros., faultless in style, fit, finish and materials. They're so much better than the ordinary run of clothes, yet prices are astonishingly low, and you're perfectly safe in ordering, because if garments are not satisfactory, you needn't take them. We will be pleased to show you samples-Call

J. J. BRANNAMAN,

A Thanksgiving Dinner Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repaeted attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, exposes the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and final catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflamation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. For sale by East End